LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

BURTON NEAL LEVY

At this time I would like our group to consider slating their May 1974 meeting in conjunction with the annual State Convention of Numismatists of Wisconsin. The convention dates are the 4th and the 5th of May 1974. The convention is being hosted by the Waukesha Coin Club and it is being held at the Waukesha County Exposition Center. This fine convention facility is located just 15 minutes west of downtown Milwaukee.

As General Chairman of this event, I can say that we would certainly like to have you there. I also think that you would find it very interesting. I know that your policy in the past has been meeting in the Chicago area. This move would very possibly add to the interest of your group. We would have available a separate meeting room for you. Please bring it up at your November meeting. I would like to attend, but I will be attending the Michigan State Coin Convention. - Kurt R. Krueger

Hey Burt...Your newsletter got me. Enclosed is the application & check. I really like the Bulletin Board. - Stew Nethken

*****

I like your news, you did a great job. I wish to thank those who contribute coins along with the news. It's a great idea for motivation and the start of a collection. - John Spadone - P.S. I repeat your news is getting better with each issue, thanks to you, and members should appreciate that.

WE CAN DO SO MUCH TOGETHER...

The Elongated

Roller

B.N.L.

I hear good and bad comments from rollers so I thought I would express those comments in the following manner:

Just between you and I...I'm sorry I ever got involved!

Sales are fine...my approval list members can't wait until my next issues come out!

My two new dies aren't paid for yet and it's been over a year!

Rolling as a hobby is fine, but if I had to make a living from it I'd be selling pencils and collecting welfare.

Who has time to fiddle around...I have more important and profitable things to do.

My well rolled, limited issue elongateds are very much in demand.

Dear Members of MEC,

When Burt Levy asked me to write an article for the newsletter several months ago I didn't feel I knew enough about the subject of collecting elongated coins, but now I realize, that there isn't really anyone who is an absolute authority on the subject. No one really knows when the first elongated coin was rolled or the quantity of each coin and there isn't really any material or books on elongated coins other than Dottie Dow's book, "The Elongated Collector" (of which I am a proud owner) which help the collector.

I would like to see the members write more articles on unlisted coins, which they have in their collections. This would be a great help to the rest of us.

I have an unlisted lords prayer with a small "k" just below and to the right of the "n" in amen. This coin was apparently rolled by the same person who rolled RELt.c # 1.

I am looking forward to seeing more members participate in the newsletter and I will be more than happy to correspond with any or all the members.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Thornhill

THE QUESTION BOX ???

Last issue $ 210.00 was quoted as the highest price paid for an elongated. However John Spadone informs us that MO-SLWF # 23 recently sold for $ 237. on another bid list.

Question - Who has the largest collection of elongated coins? How many are in it?

Question - Tom Hudson recently purchased an elongated PNC commemorating Maurice M. Gould's golden anniversary in numismatics. The elongated was rolled by Dottie Dow and it was postmarked Feb. 6, '68. The personal inscription reads; To Ronnie Earle, A good friend and numismatist. Best Wishes, Maury. Can anyone tell Tom and us how many were made and the estimated value?

MERRY CHRISTMAS

PAUL'S
SPECIALTIES

Starting with the next issue of the MEC newsletter I will be writing a column on Christmas elongateds, listing them with the name of the roller and when possible I'll tell you if they are still available at the time of listing. At this time I have 74 christmas coins but I will need the help of all the members if I'm going to be able to make a complete listing. I'm asking members to send listings to me and I will list a portion of them in each newsletter until the list is complete. I will need a lot of help with the 1973 coins as they come out as I could very easily miss some. I hope the column works out and meets with the approval of the membership and if it does I will continue with other topics such as space, political, storecards, etc. If I continue I will also be able to add to the lists I've already done.

I will need your help and to give a little I will send my storecard free to every member who sends me their listings. Send your listings to:

Paul Aubry
128 Jane Street
Englewood, New Jersey 07631

and have a Merry Christmas!

Gus Meccarello

On the bourse floor of the Boston ANA, after making my presence known to the dealers and asking them if any elongates were available, I decided it was time when the old legs needed a rest. The best place I found was Ben Miller's booth where Lee Martin, Lloyd E. Wagaman, Angelo Rosato, and myself began to shoot the breeze.

At the booth I noticed Lee had some giveaway elongates on one cent and ten cent pieces. I was offered one of each and I noticed that each looked a little different and at a closer look this was surely visible. The first thing I said was, Hey Lee, Do you know you have varieties of elongates in this box? As I said this there were four more hands in the box looking them over. (Lloyd's & Angie's) Sure enough we found that there were at least four types all mixed.

We finally got a word out of Lee and he said, You know, you guys are quite sharp to find those small varieties in those elongates. To tell you the truth I forgot that we (Claude Lee Thomas) made three or four different dies and we did mix them up not realizing the small variations.

With this the three of us really did a good job of looking. We split up the box of elongates and with our eagle eyes going I would hear Lloyd say, sure enough this is different and then Angie would hand one over for us to look at and check. Then I would do the same.

The whole box was looked through and sure enough the three of us did get three different varieties apiece. As we paid Lee, he was still shaking his head wondering how all this came about.

Lloyd, Angie, and myself were three collectors feeling great in finding these three varieties for our collections. So there is pleasure in looking over elongates just to find those little varieties.

BLESS YOU...For your cards and letters.

THE BULLETIN BOARD section of the newsletter is intended as a media for the collector who wishes to display his or her desire to obtain elongated coins, or to make it known that he or she has a coin(s) which one may wish to obtain.

Under no circumstances will THE BULLETIN BOARD display FOR SALE ads. Advertising space is available at the following rates;  $\frac{1}{4}$  pg. 1.50,  $\frac{1}{2}$  pg. 2.50, 1 pg. 5.00, for those who wish to take advantage of them.

Courtesy will be given to all dealers and rollers who are members of MEC. Upon request their names and addresses will be printed in a special section designated as such.

DAVID J. SINGER'S...ELONGATED COLUMN

Three representatives of MEC attended the TEC annual meeting in Boston. Ben Odesser, Jim Hicks, and Shel Green were the ones...Our ex-pres. Rudy Skaritka has moved to Hartland, Wisconsin. That's where his new job sent him...Dow's book lists close to 1000 elongates. The Columbian Exposition produced 19 and there are two unlisted...In an after the meeting discussion Milt Heitman was considered the top collector in the country...John Spadone of auction fame sent in a souvenir elongate of the Gold Coast Coin Club Show held Nov. 3 & 4th at Hollywood, Fl., and his Florida alligator. John, these go into the MEC museum...Lee Martin has an article in 'Coinage Magazine, Nov. '73. The article, "Another Dimension in Coin Collecting", with photos is one of the best I've ever seen...Shel Green has donated a dozen elongates to the MEC museum, among them are two cancelled elongates...On Oct. 22nd at "Exhibition Night" of a regular CCE meeting, Eric Goodwin won 1st prize for his display of his Lloyd E. Wagaman collection. Eric has been collecting Wagaman's elongates for five years and he's quite a specialist. If Lloyd can't answer any of your questions about his issues, the bet is that Eric can!

"If you did it for Ian, you have to do it for Jennifer". That's what Lynne said so I contacted Cee Ceven Elongates, who made my storecard and Ian's birthday elongated, and I made the proper arrangements to contract an elongated to commemorate Jennifer's first birthday.

An estimated total of 174 coins will be rolled and the die will be cancelled. Only 50 rolled on cents will be available for sale at one dollar ea. (An estimated 156 cents will be rolled)

You may drop me a card to reserve an elongated for you. Do not send cash as yet - this is just to reserve your elongated until its availability.
